PREVIEW

Can Austin Stacks repeat last year's Club final win over Kenmare Shamrocks?

By MORTIMER MURPHY

IN a repeat of last year's Kerry Petroleum Club Championship final, Austin Stacks and Kenmare Shamrocks will face off at the Fitzgerald Stadium with the Tralee side slight favourites to lift the Michael O'Connor Cup, something they managed last year after a titanic battle.

But thirteen months on and Kenmare Shamrocks are the form side having beaten neighbours Templenoe and Dr. Crokes to reach the final but they lost to the new kids on the block, Spa in between but they have been the standout team in this strange Club Championship that sees Killarney Legion and Dr. Crokes facing a potential trap door game to the Intermediate ranks later in the year.

So can Kenmare Shamrocks win their first senior club title of modern times or will Stacks get the confidence booster they might well need before they come face to face with champions East Kerry in that match of the day in two weeks time in the County Senior Football Championship?

It appears that Wayne Quillinan has been doing a lot of the heavy lifting with his squad in terms of getting them razor sharp and flying fit for the East Kerry game which must be the goal this year for Stacks. So Wayne and Stacks, while in the final on merit, it may not have been the plan but once you are in a final, you want to win it.

Last year Kenmare Shamrocks had Stacks on the ropes for long periods when leading 1-8 to 0-6 at the three quarters stage, but they failed to deliver the knockout blow and Stacks got up off the canvas to launch a final quarter comeback and force the game to extra time, before winning 1-17 to 1-14. This year Stacks had barely to raise a gallop to make the semis but they did have to show some mettle to come from behind to beat Dingle and top the group. Then they breezed past a Templenoe side in the second half of the semi-final on Sunday last, that the Stacks B side would have probably beaten on the day as the losers could only manage a paltry 0-4 during the hour!

Kenmare Shamrocks on the other hand have been like an assassination squad of late, with Sean O'Shea performing like a modern day William Tell. He shot down Dr. Crokes with a 15 point haul and then he turned his arrows on Dingle in the semi-final, scoring 0-11 of his side's 0-17 that saw Kenmare Shamrocks make the final by the minimum margin.

So if Austin Stacks want to win they must put the shackles on Seanie O'Shea and must be very disciplined at the back, because if they concede too many frees, the All-Star nominee will punish them.

But Kenmare Shamrocks are by no means a one man band, as they have some fine footballers in every line. Kerry senior custodian Kieran Fitzgibbon will concede nothing soft and has been making some fine saves but these have gone under the radar because of Seanie O'Shea's scoring exploits. James McCarthy is a player Jack O'Connor will no doubt be looking at while the same applies to Dan McCarthy. Throw in Dara O'Shea and Dara Crowley and you have a strong defence who also like to join the attack. David Hallissey and Griffin Wharton have been in flying form at midfield and the attack as well as O'Shea has Stephen O'Brien, Paul O'Connor and Kevin O'Sullivan who have all or are currently wearing the green and gold jersey. So Kenmare Shamrocks are a formidable outfit and will fancy lowering the colours of another side wearing black and amber.

But Austin Stacks have players with big game experience, mixed with young and up and coming talent that shortly will have to show that they are more than up and coming, they have arrived.

Wayne Guthrie is a fine keeper and he is fronted by Kerry U-20 and UCC star Dylan Casey, Clare senior Conor Jordan, South Kerry SFC winner Paul O'Sullivan and the experienced Ronan Shanahan and promising Jack O'Shea. Stacks have a powerful midfield combo in Joe O'Connor, another player hoping to be part of Jack O'Connor's plans along with former Kerry player Brendan O'Sullivan.

Kieran Donaghy is the fulcrum of the attack even in the twilight of his playing career and his shooters include Shane O'Callaghan, Greg Horan, Michael O'Gara, Fiachra Mangan and Seán Quilter to mention just a few.

VERDICT: So it's a game that could go either way and might well go to the side who wants it more. My hunch is that this game could be Kenmare Shamrocks' County Final while Austin Stacks will also want to win some silverware but they might well have one eye on Oct 30th and East Kerry! So a slight preference for Kenmare Shamrocks is the call.
